Leadership, Fund Development, Volunteer Management, Services	1:00 - 2:00 pm	Cost of Home: Being a Part of Habitat's First National Advocacy Campaign (Part I)	Learn about Habitat for Humanity's first U.S. advocacy campaign and how you can maximize your efforts to be a part of mobilizing our partners, our volunteers and community members across the country to find the solutions and help create the policies to improve home affordability for 10 million individuals. By participating in the Cost of Home campaign, you will not only be part of a nationwide movement. You will also be equipped to elevate the issue of home affordability, leverage the campaign for advocacy fundraising, raise your organization's profile among coalition partners and policy makers and engage community members in a new way and more. Cost of Home provides the opportunity to engage at a level that's right for your affiliated organization's current capacity and grow to a level that can be sustained far beyond the end of the five-year campaign.	Anne Jeff	Myers Noel	HFHI Whirlpool
Volunteer Management, Construction, Services	1:00 - 2:00 pm	Supporting Resident-led Community Initiatives	Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley supports resident-led initiatives in two partner neighborhoods: West Willow and Sugarbrook. Learn how our role in these communities has evolved over time and how, during the pandemic, together we tackled emergency needs while still focusing on long-term neighborhood goals.	Sarah	Teare	HFH Huron Valley
Leadership, Fund Development, Services, Volunteer Management	1:00 - 2:00 pm	Relationship Status: "It's Complicated"	Navigating the complicated and complex relationship triangle between Board Member, Executive Director and Staff is filled with unwritten rules and warnings. When the relationships work – the organizational culture is highly efficient, energized by the speed of trust and a shared passion for the work. But when it doesn't, bad relationships can destroy productivity, distract all parties away from mission and at towards confusion, suspicion or worse – complaints, allegations and grievances. This workshop explores the policies, practices, laws and limitations that make or break these relationships so all parties can proceed with appropriate caution, keep the organization and mission safe and most importantly, build an organizational culture that is respectful, productive and retains talent. Session objectives will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Review the realities of the org chart</li> <li>•Provide high level overview of the Fair Labor Standards Act</li> <li>•Explore power dynamics and conflicts of interest</li> <li>•How to spot a whistleblower complaint when it arrives in the form of casual conversation</li> </ul>	Regina	Pinney	Nonprofit Network
	2:00 - 2:15 pm	Break, Exhibitor Promotion (1:1 and Small Group Rooms Available)

Wednesday, October 28, 2020: Session 6
Construction, Leadership	9:00 - 10:00 am	Modular Construction	What is modular production? Modular production refers to the off-site construction of completed home sections (or modules) which are built in accordance with local building code, delivered to site and assembled on a permanent foundation to produce a finished home. The finished product is indistinguishable from traditionally built homes, but the process provides significant scheduling improvements operational efficiencies. The case for modular production partnerships at affiliates - The pandemic demands innovative additions to our operations in order to continue producing homes at the scale necessary while protecting our people, or programs, and our assets.	Ted Fines + Panel
Leadership, Fund Development, Volunteer Management, Services	9:00 - 10:00 am	Cost of Home: Being a Part of Habitat's First National Advocacy Campaign (Part II)	Join this session and learn how to become an advocate in your community through the U.S. advocacy campaign. Every affiliate has the opportunity to be an advocate for affordable housing policies that further our mission. Engage with experienced peers and learn about the barriers faced and the strategies used in their communities when advocating for better housing policies at the local level. This workshop will also provide insight on the four subthemes of the U.S. advocacy campaign: Supply and Preservation of Affordable Homes, Access to Credit, Communities of Opportunity, and Land Use. In this session, attendees will hear examples of policy work that affiliates have undertaken across the U.S. that is relevant for affiliates in Michigan, particularly as they relate to COVID-19 response and addressing the need for racial equity. The hope being that several affiliates will join GRA staff in sharing their experience -- best practices and lessons learned -- in working towards relatable policy solutions. Participants will leave the session with a better understanding of what policy solutions they may want to advocate for and ideas for how.	Anne	Myers	HFHI
ReStore	9:00 - 10:00 am	ReStore Pick - Up Service Best Practices	An open discussion about the Pick up services ReStores offer and the best practices surrounding them. We will also examine different scheduling platforms with a possible guest speaker.	Scott	Baldwin	HFH of Kent County

All	10:15 - 11:15 am	Plenary: Corporate Partner Council	Meet representatives from some of our major Corporate Partners and learn from one another, share corporate and foundation funding perspectives, expectations, and best practices of giving, connecting to community, and ROI. After the panel presentation, there will be time for Q & A with the partner panel. It is a rare event to have all of these companies represented together, so we hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to hear their perspectives and suggestions on making the most of your corporate partnerships!
	11:15 am - 1:00 pm	Lunch
Wednesday, October 28, 2020: Session 8
All	1:00 - 2:00 pm	What do I do now? Ways nonprofit leadership can continue the conversations advancing social justice (Part 1)	Nonprofit leaders and organizations have always been role models and change makers, advocating for policy change that improves the community and advances their missions. The country is in the middle of a cultural awakening and we all know this is the time we must make considerable strides toward social justice and equity. Every nonprofit, regardless of mission, plays a crucial part in this movement. This session will provide tangible and tactical strategies to have crucial conversations with your peers, your board, your staff and your community regarding race, bias and discrimination. This is a starting place to identify what organizations can and should be doing, to identify and address their own internal systems and the systems in which they work. Session objectives will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Identifying your readiness</li> <li>•Ways to move forward when you are afraid or uncertain</li> <li>•Building the courage to fail forward</li> <li>•How to discuss social justice with your teams</li> <li>•Define internal assessment tasks and actions</li> </ul>	Regina Dr. Katena	Pinney Cain
Leadership, Fund Development, Volunteer Management, Services, Construction, ReStore	1:00 - 2:00 pm	11 Ideas for Rural and Small Affiliates	This session will review programs, resources, and strategies that can benefit current efforts and/or long-term sustainability. It's a challenge for the leadership of small affiliates to keep up with the many opportunities, programs, and requirements that are out there. Being able to manage and navigate this information is vital to the health of an affiliate. Both strategies and specific programs will be discussed.	Mary	Welch
All	1:00 - 2:00 pm	Veterans & Leadership in Times of Crisis	Bringing together veteran service organizations for a panel discussion on how their organizations pivoted during crisis and how these organizations are utilizing leadership and veterans to be successful during challenging times.	Erica	Dodge
